Yes sir replied Metalgreymon has he turned around and left the room he went walking down some stairs and headed for the training room wher his adopted son Greymon was training with Birdimon and Tyranimon.

Metorwing the fire balls came down at Greymon but he deflected them off of his arm right back at Birdrimon she din it have a nuff time to dodge them so she put her wings in the way to try to stop them. She got hit dead on and fell down to the ground Greymon and Tyranmon ran over to help her. Are you okay yeah im fine they all look up as MetalGreymon walked over to them whats are next mission Greymon asked will he helped Birdomon get up. After a few more minutes of walking they started to here somthing up in the distance it sounded like heavy foot steps and eventually they started to take shape. What the Tai muttered under his breath before turning around to the others Matt look up ahead I cant make out whats up ahead it might be some evil digimon said Joe maybe we should go hide where at said Tai where in the middle of a desert besides I say we stay here and fight Matt was about to say something when suddenly they could other Greymon somehow managed to push the attack away howling blaster the attack went flying towards Birdramon but she flew out of the way the digimon continued to blast at the other digimon but the Greymon and MetalGreymon just kept stopping the attacks until the digimon ran out of energy and de digivolved back to Rookies okay wait a second where not here to fight you y should we believe you asked Matt because if we were we would of already have killed you by now. He has a good point said Izzy I theorize that with how long they have been here that if they wanted to fight they would of attacked us by now Sora look over to Izzy so your saying we should trust them precisely I don't no said Tai looking over at the digimon don't were where with the D.S.T.F the what iv heard of them before said Tentomon there a secret group of good digimon hoo are led by the good Eggmon right or primary mission is to save the digi world and help the digi destined D.S.T.F stands for digimon special task force we've been sent here

MetalGreymon and Tyranimon had to hold him back until he finally calmed down sorry about that Greymon has a bit of a bad temper they where startled by a noise behind them they all turned around and saw a Teddymon die he screamed before shooting laser beams from his eyes Greymon arm suddenly became metal and he bounced the attack away no one notice that the beam hit the ruins and made a hole in the top.
Greymon's other arm also became metal he pointed both arms at the Teddymon Mega claw both arms went flying off and hit the Teddymon and sent him flying until they couldn't see him any more. Lets go said Greymon as he turned around and started walking towards the ruins they all went in side and sat down they where all very tired and exhausted MetalGreymon and Izzy started working on Izzy's computer while the others listened to something Greymon said he had to tell them.
Okay listen up our sources told us some interesting info before we left snickering until he saw the look on Mgreymons face he look down felling bad about how he was acting. After that Mimi fell asleep while the others started discussing about what they should do next well it seems to me that all we can do right now is find the other digi vices well you now for ones im going to agree with you Tai besides we don't have any other choice Sora was surprised that they wernt getting in to an argument well se said standing up I think that we should go to sleep now Greymon look over at them ill watch gourd for a whil Izziy and Mgreymon wher still working on his computer Mgreymon yawned okay I think we've been working a nuff well finish looking at the info tomorrow okay said Izziy reluctant yey every body else was asleep exept for them and Greymon Greymon I have a question for you how did you make your arms metal so fast with out digivolving well you sey im not a normal digimon im a rare have breed im half champion half ultimate and I have the ability to make any part of my body metal and and what y ar you stopping did you here that something's coming Izziy din it here any thing at first but then he heard a slight tapping sound then suddenly the wall exploded.

Chapter 5

Tai awoke to se Sora how ar you felling fin I guess he din it exactly remember what happened but he new that they beat Gravmon Tai don't ever do that again for a second ther I thout that you might be im okay and I promise I will never almost get myself killed again this doesn't make sense said Mgreymon I mean the magnetic readings ar gone how asked Izzy I don't know the reading could of been a digimon Izziy look at him you mean ther is always a magnetic digimon yeah ther is you sey ther different types like fire elemental magnetic non elemental ice I remember that according to legend there was only 3 of magneticmons kind he was the strongest of them all what happen was when him and the other ancient digimon found out about the human world he said they should take it over of course they said no so he started getting followers to help him take the human world so he was punished to death he tried to fight the ancient digimon on the count he was one of the strongest but before he even got to fight them they all combined their power in to one and blasted him he fell in the ocean and they thought he was dead I guess hes no or at least hes not to be alive y do you say that asked Izziy because you say the reading I got on my scanner was 7.12 and his was a wall magnetic energy reading is 800.00 and if the reading is lower than 10.00 that means hes dying well maybe hes dead check the scan again okay lets im getting o shit im getting a reading of 1500.90 but I cant pin point his location Tai look over at him then if theres an evil digimon running loose around here then I think we better keep gourdys right me and my team will take turns watching now you two should go to sleep.

Sora awoke but saw that Tai was not in his spot any more she hey your awake early said Greymon he had been watching out for any evil digimon but hadent seen any wears Tai I don't now maybe he was cut short by Tai yelling for every body to wake up what the hell what are crazy Tai waking us up this early Matt shouted at Tai shut now listen up your end comes here what the @#$% are you talking about Tai I think hes sick hold on a sec said Mgreymon he turned on his computer o no the high magnetic readings are coming from him exactly now watch closely he said as he floated in the air and energy seem to go in to him I am no longer Tai I am Magneticmon this is not good said Mgreymon o yeah think replied Matt sarcastically no you don't get it Magneticmon has transferred his powers and evil in to Tai exactly now prepare to die a shield of energy suddenly appeared around him Mega claw the claw hit the shield and bounced off Biyomon digivolved in to Birdramon Gomamon digivolved in to Ikkakumon Palmon digivolved in to Togemon needle spray meteorwing harpoon torpedo the attacks hit the shield and all bounced off the needles when back and hit Ikkakumon the fire balls bounced off and hit Togemon and the harpoon torpedo's hit Birdramon before any more of them could attack however a shield appeared around all of them including them humans and started shocking while draining away their power after that the shields disappeared and every body fell down to the ground knocked out Tai look down at them ill say you later a with that he teleported away.

Chapter 6

Sora woke up to find herself in a room where ever at the D.S.T.F base she look over to see Matt they said that they found us all unconscious in the forest so they brought us back here follow me the others are waiting for us in the briefing room Sora got up out of the bed and started to follow Matt throu the base along the way she saw all sorts of digimon they entered the briefing room where Eggmon was waiting hello welcome please sit down Sora and Matt both found some seats and sat down every body else was there including their body gourdys okay Mgreymon gave me his report so you fought Magneticmon and hes one of your friends let me tell you what I now you say one of the worst reasons that hes back is that he is of course past the Ultimate stage you say their pretty much no one left past that stage besides evil digimon and your digimon you say one of the ancient digimon was my ancestor thats where I get my powers from but I cant stop him you'll have to o yes and im also going to give you a another body gourd come a MetalTyranomon walked in to the room hes going to help gourd you now also he was cut short by a alarm going what is it asked Greymon its not good Tai or Magneticmon is attacking a power plant if he blows it up a lot of digimon could die lets go said Matt.

They had just arrived at the plant until they got Tai back Matt was going to be the leader Tai turned around to face them your all 2 seconds late now lets fight Tentomon digivolve in to Kabuterimon Gabumon digivolve in to Garurumon elesrochocker the attack went flying down and hit Tais shield but in stead of damaging the shield it just seemed to make it stronger Tai just laughed magnetism and electricity ar related he pointed his hand up and blasted Kabuterimon howling blaster Tai threw an energy ball and hit Garurumon dead on Palmon digivolve in to Togemon needle spray the needles bounced of the shield and came right back at them every one tried to take cover but ther to many and several of the digimon got hit Garurumon digivolve in to wereGarurumon Tai blasted wereGarurumon right in the chest wich slammed him in to wall Kabuterimon digivolve in to MegaKabuterimon horn buster but Tai saw him coming and blasted him away nova blast mega claw meteorwing biyomon digivolve in to Birdraman the attacks hit his shield weakening it crap my shield cant last for ever he threw out little electricity ball wich shocked all off the digimon several times before stopping his shield disappeared and he flew down in front of the digidestiond end of line he said as he garbed Sora by her arm and shocked her with a small amount of energy to knock her out he picked here and was getting ready to blast the others say good bye not a chance said Matt Weregarurumon digivolve in to Icemon Tais shield went up as he floated up in to the air whil holding on to Sora Icmon started glowing has power from all the digivices went in to him all of the digimon dedigivolved back to Rookies the glass one the digivices started cracking Iceblast a huge beam of Ice emitted from his hand and at the same time the digivices exploded Tai shot out his of beam to stop the beam coming at him Iv underestimated your power he yelled whil Tai was busy stopping the attack Icemon picked up every body and ran out of the plant has fast as he could when Tai stoped the attack he look around and realized that they got away holly hell he shouted out loud it seem ther stronger then I thout I better not make a mistake like that again o well at least I still have here he said looking down at Sora before he teliported away with her.

Chapter 7

Icemon kept running until it felt that they wher a safe distance away he put every body down and the dedigivoled back to an egg Greymon shook his head now what do we do what do what do we said Matt looking at hime we have to rescue Sora reality check yelled Greymon that is large and in charge and don't forget you guys blew up your digivices he has a point said Joe we don't have our digivices any more so ar digimon cant digivolve Izziy look around has if he was thinking well ther is that set two that Greymon told us about that suppose to be better then set one so maybe if we find them we can beat him yeah but your forgetting one thing ther scattered around digiworld not any more they all turnaround to se Eggmon you sey I have been having my men sure for them and just a few minutes ago we found the last one here he held out 7 digivices that look like a digivice when a digimon became an ultimate just smaller good said Matt now we can stop him but we don't now wher he is and wher he took Sora don't worry about that look at all of them and continued you sey hey has a mansion some wher and we happen to no wher okay said Greymon then lest go you guys go ahead without me said Matt I want to check out the D.S.T.F armory.

Tai walked in to the room he had locked Sora in he unlocked the door and went in she was still asleep he sat down next to her he rubbed his hand against her cheek it felt warm and soft under his hand I now that I have feelings for her but dose she know I have feelings for here now Soras eyes slowly opend up Tai she said as she tried to sit up but she regretted doing this because her head started to ache and she lied back down you kidnapped me yey I did don't worry about your headache he said as he put he hand against her head she felt all the pain just disappeared she sat up strait I have the ability to heal some body by touching them wherever ther ar heart at your friends will come to save and have a hard time beating me the only way to kill is to cut my head off if I get heart then all I have to do is think about that part of my body getting healed and then its healed but it takes up some of my energy so I cant use it as many times as I want but I can use it a lot.

So you kidnapped me has bait basically yes I kind of also felt a strang reason to chose you and not some body else Sora studied his face back at the plant when they had fought him he seemed so evil and mean now he looked like he usually but wasint acting like he usually did but he seemed more nicer Tai looked in to her eyes he din it now y but he felt his body being drawn towards here the to of them continued to come closer together until they had ther arms around echother and ther lips met Tai stood up whil still kissing her and she stood up with him they started to explore echothers mouths with ther tongues Tai started moving his down here back until started going to far down that Sora pulled back from Tai was confused at what he was doing im sorry I don't I mean Tai shook his head y the fuck am I apologizing to you Sora could sey that he was sweating and looked kind of embarrassed Ill be back and dont try to escap with that he teliported out the room and locked the door and the teliported away. Matt was walking towards the armory he desided that he was going to need some weapons with him he heard some one come up behind him he turned around to sey Mimi I thout you wher leveing with the others he said as she ran up beside him I am I just came because thers somthing I have to tell well what is it she decided she should just show so she put here arms around him and gave him a long passionate kiss when she finally let go of him she saw that his face was read and so was hers Matt turned away for a moment I would never guessed that you feel this way and I guess I din it realize until now that I fell the same about you hey they both turned to see Mgreymon Mimi ar you coming ar not I coming bye she said as she quickly kiss him on his lips and then went running to Mgreymon Matt turned around and continued towards the armory when he got in ther Gabumon was weighting for him Matt started looking throe the weapons he got sum laser guns and ammo for them okay lets go he said turning around what was ther suprisd him Tai was standing ther and he had Gabumon trapped in a shield and was draining his energy hi Matt how you doing Matt pointed a gun up before I blow your ass away let Gabumon yeah sure after a kill Tai started laughing and Matt shot him on his shoulder the shield around Gabumon disappeared Tai got back up the gun hadent has much damage has it should of don to a human he had a red spot on his shoulder but besides that nothing else happened Tai look really mad okay you got me mad now watch this a strange red armor surrounded his body and face Tai started powering up Matt started shooting away at Tai like made but it din seem to do anything to him he ran forward and slammed Matt against a wall but he didn't notice that Gabumon was behind him. Gabumon digivolved to Garurumon howling blaster the attack hit Tai in the back and knocked him through a wall. Matt was also knocked through the wall he got garbed his gun and saw that Tai was gone he started moving through the building he saw Tai jump by and he shot his gun at him he then heard some noise it sounded like Garurumon he went running to where the noise was coming from and saw nothing Tai suddenly jumped up from behind him he grabbed Matt slammed him on the ground making him drop his gun he then threw Matt in to a wall Matt was almost knocked unconscious from getting thrown in to the wall Tai armor disappeared ha I could kill you now if I wanted to oh well ill see you at the Mansion he said as he disappeared after a few minutes Matt felt better again he picked his gun and Garurumon walked over to him he jumped on to Garurumon's back lets go im going to nail that ass hole
